I am Aune Mattila, aged 78.

I have gone through the information about the 6 Principles of CREATIVE ABI and I want, to the best of my abilities, to participate in your activities and follow these Principles.

I was born 1939 , before the Finnis Winter War , in a modest home. My father died in the war, I was a baby, and my mother was left with two little children to take care of a small farm. After quite a few years she married again, so our family got a father and I got five new sisters and brothers during years.

We had a hard work to keep our farm. We used to help our neighbours when needed and they helped us, that was the habit and important in those days. We were brought up to work hard and to be honest.

I myself wanted eagerly to study and was helped by my family just at the beginning, While in the upper classes I was also working as a domestic help to get room and food.

I graduated from school in 1958, in 1960 I qualified as a teacher, and after that working life has taken me to several places.

As to my private life, I have been singing in many chorus - I stil sing in one. I`m interested in literature, and all sorts of textile and handicraft projects take the lion share of my life. Gardenworks demand the time during summer. Also many charity projects belong to my activities. As for art, I have co - operated and supported financially - in getting wall paintings for old people`s homes in 2013 and 2017 . I have also supported children`s art by taking their works to several international exhibitions. The exercise is the energy to carry this on.

When thinking of the course of my life and looking back at its beginning, I am deeply grateful for everything and appreciate the chance to participate, still now, in the activities of CREATIVE ABI, a community which acts in the spirit of the values that I have appreciated all my life.
