In acknowledgement and personal commitment to the six principles of CREATIVE ABI. I confirm to participate in CREATIVE ABI's activities based on the underscored 6 principles.

Currently, I am providing managerial and technical leadership in health and education, training and development, curriculum development as an International Independent Consultant to organisations like the Commonwealth Secretariat, British Computer Society, Centre for Knowledge at Work, Centre for Citizenship and Leadership Galaxy, Institute of Enterprise Management and Analytic.

I have over ten years of line management experience in universities and over two decades' experience in teaching. I published over seventy articles in reputable peer-review journals as well as over thirty professional checklists. I have a firm academic grounding in, Management and Leadership, Computer Science, and Theology with honours degree, postgraduate and doctorate qualifications. I speak fluent English. Currently, I am looking to bring my experience to benefiting ABI's activities as accentuated in the six essential principles.

I have a myriad of competence and skills. It centres on Fellowship Assessing and Interviewing, decision-making, documentation, technical report writings, data management, risk management, and project management. Moreover, the skill-set includes encryption, forensics, mentoring, problem solving, leadership, team, marketing, malware, networking, MapInfo, GIS, teaching, MS Office, COBOL, CBT, JAVA, C++, SPSS, and much more. An apparent multi-skill individual to benefit ABI core objectives. When making tough decisions, I would help artists to achieve their objectives in dealing with issues of life especially in the attainment of high-quality decision-making. With ABI's principles at sight, I will support the member community in problem solving and create robust competitive advantages.

I am flexible, adaptable, innovative, creative, pragmatic; learner focussed, non-judgemental, goal-getter, communicative, diplomatic, courageous, devoted, active, ambitious, balanced, consistent, candid, compassionate, entrepreneurial, and more. I can serve as helping workforce to the member community with an extra horsepower in the area of cybersecurity solutions, and reprioritising partnership and subordinates core responsibilities attainment. With specialised skills, I will be available to help the member community to facilitate employee and stakeholder engagement. As artists could benefit from a safe zone, I will be available in facilitating a high level and specific provisions.
